Dear Linda

I'm writing now to express my deep appreciation for the work that you and the staff at Emerge Trust have done with some of my clients. Its challenging these days to find a supported employment service that is adequate, so it has been really refreshing to have discovered an organization as professional as Emerge. All of my expectations have been met, and much more, in working with you and Cecilia Kumar.

From my first contact with you last year it was clear that Emerge was committed to following through with supporting clients in ways that some other agencies were not doing. That initial impression has strengthened over the past year and a half, and I have a great respect for Emerge Supported Employment Trust.

The family meeting I attended with my client, his family, and you and Cecilia was excellent, the ongoing efforts Emerge put in to work with the client were very high quality, and the termination process was professional and well done. And recently when I called to ask for some direction with another client, you went above and beyond to assist him. That was awesome! Many thanks, Linda.

Yours sincerely
